Dear Eric:

I sincerely appreciate your kind note of September 15. I have not as yet entirely abandoned the hope of getting to Europe later in the fall. Unfortunately my plans for this year were sent askew by the visitation we are now having as I felt I should be on the job during this period and I have some appointments in October which may make it difficult for me to get away then.

If I should come your way, I will see that you get due warning  in any event I look forward to seeing you in the spring when we are hoping you will be here.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
